

FAILURE OF PINE SEEDLINGS ON CONVERTED AGRICULTURAL CROPLANDS: PESTS AND PRESCRIPTIONS

E. L. Barnard<sup>1</sup>, W. N. Dixon<sup>1</sup>, E. C. Ash<sup>1</sup>, and S. W. Fraedrich<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup>Forest Pathologist, Entomologist, and Biologist, respectively
Florida Division of Forestry, FDACS, P.O. Box 1269, Gainesville, FL 32602

<sup>2</sup>
Research Plant Pathologist, U.S. Forest Service
P.O. Box 70, Olustee, FL 32072

Presented by S. P. Gilly
Central Forestation Coordinator, Florida Division of Forestry
To the Southern Forest Nurserymen's Conference
Biloxi, MS, July 1990

Interested persons can obtain more detailed information on above subject by writing to the

Integrated Forest Pest Management Co-op
118 Newins-Ziegler Hall
University of Florida
Gainesville, Florida 32611
Attn: Dr. Robert Schmidt

and requesting the Interim Research Report under the above title.