

JUN 09 1998

LIBRARIES
DEPOSITORY

Contents

Comments

Tree Planters' Notes

is published quarterly by State and Private Forestry, Forest Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, DC 20250. The Secretary of Agriculture has determined that the publication of this periodical is necessary in the transaction of public business required by law of this Department.

Editor-in-chief: Rebecca Nisley
(Hamden, CT)

Assistant editors: James Barnett (Pineville, LA) and Thomas Landis (Portland, OR).

Associate editors: John Brissette (Orono, ME), Karen Burr (Coeur d'Alene, ID), Kasten Dumroese (Moscow, ID), Steven Grossnickle (Vancouver, BC), Robert Karrfalt (Dry Branch, GA), Clark Lantz (Atlanta, GA), Laurie Lippitt (Davis, CA), Robert Mangold (Washington, DC), Vincente Arriaga Martinez (Mexico City, DF), John Mexal (Las Cruces, NM), Ronald Overton (St. Paul, MN), Robin Rose (Corvallis, OR), William Schroeder (Indian Head, SK), Irwin Smith (Thunder Bay, ON), David South (Auburn, AL), Richard Tinus (Flagstaff, AZ), and Denise Tousignant (St.-Modeste, QC).

Articles in all sections except the "Practical Tips" and "Little-Known Classics" are peer-reviewed by two outside, anonymous referees. Articles in the "Practical Tips" section are reviewed by a technology transfer specialist and a scientist on the advisory board. "Little-Known Classics" are chosen by the editorial board from regional and state newsletters and publications already in print.

Cover: Southern cone rust on slash pine (photograph courtesy of Florida Division of Forestry, Department of Agriculture & Consumer Services, Gainesville, Florida; submitted by E. L. Barnard).

Ten Years of Tree Planters' Notes Indexed in This Issue

It seems like just yesterday that I was arranging the 10-year index for volumes 27 to 38, but it was really 1988! In this issue we print another 10-year index, one for volumes 38 to 48. We hope that it will be useful to you, our readers and customers! This index was prepared by Donna Loucks, forestry information specialist at Centralia, Washington. If you cannot obtain copies of any articles listed from the library of your state's forestry school (usually at the land-grant university) or federal depository library, you can order copies (for a fee) from Ms Loucks, by mail at 174 Jones Road, Centralia, WA 98531, by e-mail at loucksd@localaccess.com, or by FAX at 360-736-5929.

Going Electronic: The SNTI Homepage Will Include Tree Planters' Notes

Those of you who use the World-Wide Web have probably visited the USDA Forest Service's Seedling, Nursery, and Tree Improvement Team's homepage at

<http://willow.ncfes.umn.edu/snti.htm>

This issue of Tree Planters' Notes—Fall 1996, volume 47, number 4—will be published electronically at this site. In addition, we will be working to make back issues available as well. Please visit us and check out all the other features of the SNTI webpage. You can read Tree Planters' Notes and Forest Nursery Notes; order copies of articles mentioned in FNN and arrange to use the FNN Reference Database; locate nurseries and seed dealers in on-line directories; and read about SNTI programs and the National Tree Seed Laboratory. For you dedicated net surfers, there are links to related websites and to the Native Plant Network.

Rebecca G. Nisley
editor-in-chief
USDA Forest Service
Northeastern Forest Experiment Station
Hamden, Connecticut

Note: Our concept of this editorial space is that it should be a place to publish opinions and ideas relating to the nursery, reforestation, and restoration professions. We invite you to submit ideas for commentaries. The views expressed here are solely those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect those of the Tree Planters' Notes editorial staff, the Forest Service, or the U.S. Department of Agriculture. — RN and the editorial board.

Comments

Ten Years of Tree Planters' Notes Indexed in This Issue

It seems like just yesterday that I was arranging the 10-year index for volumes 27 to 38, but it was really 1988 in the issue we print another 10-year index, one for volumes 39 to 48. We hope that it will be useful to you, our readers and customers. This index was prepared by Donna Laska, forestry information specialist at Centralia, Washington. If you cannot obtain copies of any articles listed from the library of your state's forestry school (usually at the land-grant university) or federal depository library, you can order copies (for a fee) from Mrs. Laska, by mail at 174 Jones Road, Centralia, WA 98521, by e-mail at donnalaska@comcast.com or by FAX at 360-738-3925.

Going Electronic: The SNIT Homepage Will Include Tree Planters' Notes

Those of you who use the World-Wide Web have probably visited the USDA Forest Service's Seedling Nursery and Tree Improvement Team's homepage at

<http://www.forest.snr.usda.gov>

This issue of Tree Planters' Notes—Fall 1998, volume 47, number 4—will be published electronically at this site. In addition, we will be working to make back issues available as well. Please visit us and check out all the other features of the SNIT homepage. You can read Tree Planters' Notes and forest nursery notes; order copies of articles mentioned in TVN and arrange to use the FNM Resource Database; locate nurseries and seed dealers in on-line directories; and read about SNIT programs and the National Tree Seed Laboratory. For you dedicated net surfers, there are links to related websites and to the Native Plant Network.

Richard C. Nisley
editor-in-chief
USDA Forest Service
Northwest Forest Experiment Station
Hemlock, Centralia

Note: Our concept of the editorial group is that it should be a place to publish opinions and ideas relating to the nursery, reforestation, and restoration professions. We invite you to submit ideas for comment. Comments are accepted from all walks of life of the industry and do not necessarily reflect those of the Tree Planters' Notes editorial staff, the Forest Service, or the U.S. Department of Agriculture.—RN and the editorial board

Individual authors are responsible for the technical accuracy of the material mentioned in Tree Planters' Notes. The mention of commercial products in this publication is solely for the information of the reader, and endorsement is not intended by the Forest Service or the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

This publication reports research involving pesticides. It does not contain recommendations for their use, nor does it imply that the uses discussed here have been registered. All uses of pesticides must be registered by appropriate state and/or federal agencies before they can be recommended. Caution: Pesticides can be injurious to humans, domestic animals, desirable plants, and fish and other wildlife—if they are not handled or applied properly. Use all pesticides selectively and carefully. Follow recommended practices for the disposal of surplus pesticides and pesticide containers.